

Vocabulary Words—Blood on the River, Week 5

1. regal—a person looks and acts like a king or queen
2. vigil—to watch over in a careful way
3. wealthy—a synonym for rich
4. rationing—to take something that you have only a bit of and give it out in small portions to make it last
5. foreshadowing—a noun used to describe author's craft
6. examine—to look at very closely
7. delirium—inability to think normally because you are sick or hurt
8. servitude—to live the life of a servant or slave
9. authority—the right or power to give commands or make rules